APO #03, U. S. Army
20 October 45

SUBJECT: Report of Operations.

TO : Commanding General, Third U. S. Army, APO 403, U. S. Army

1. Employment of U. S. Forces.

a. On the 8th of May 1945, the 398th AAA AW BN (SP) was still assigned to 12th Army Group, Third U. S. Army and attached to 55th Brigade, 16th AAA Group and 14th Armored Division, deployed in the vicinity of Velden, Germany. The mission of the battalion was still that of affording AA protection to elements of the 14th Armored Division.

On 9 May 1945, the 398th AAA AW BN (SP) was relieved from AA assignment and assigned to security duty under 14th Armored Division Artillery control. All installations of the battalion prepared to move to the vicinity of Landshut and the new area assigned.

On 10 May 1945 the battalion, moved north into the vicinity of Landshut. All batteries of the battalion were assigned the duty of setting up road blocks and guarding military installations in that area. A 24 hour guard was set up at all vital installations and at all road junctions on the north outskirts of the city.

On 11 May 1945, road junctions south of the city were added to the battalion assignment. The battalion CP was located in Landshut (U2120). The CP of Battery "A" was also located in Landshut. Battery "B" CP located at Golding, while Battery "C" located at Hohenthann and Battery "D" established at Arth.

No change in assignment from 12 May 45 to and including 17 May 1945.

On 18 May 1945, Battalion Headquarters, together with Headquarters Battery took over the function of service and supply. Battery "B" established a guard over vital installations and road junctions in the vicinity of Roth. Battery "B" CP was established in the town. Battery "D" established a guard over the 14th Armored Division PW cage at Wasserburg, and also established guards on the dam crossing the river north of the town. The CP for Battery "D" was located at Holifenlden. In the Landshut area, Battery "A" took over the area that had been guarded by Battery "B" and Battery "C" took over the area that had been guarded by Battery "D". At 1900 the battalion was relieved of assignment to the 14th Armored Division but remained in position awaiting relief.

CONFIDENTIAL

The battalion remained in position awaiting relief until 24 May 1945, at that time the battalion was relieved of assignment in Wasserburg, and Headquarters, Headquarters Battery and Batteries "B" and "D" rejoined Batteries "A" and "C" in Landshut. Guard over vital installations and road junctions was resumed. At 1200 the battalion was relieved from assignment to 16th AAA Group and attached to 7th AAA Group, 55th AAA Brigade.

No change in assignments from 25 May 45 to and including 14 June 45. At that time the battalion was detached from the 7th AAA Group and attached to 27th AAA Group, 38th AAA Brigade. The battalion prepared to move to a new position.

On 17 June 45, Headquarters and Headquarters Battery moved to Holzkirchen. In addition to functioning as service and supply to the batteries Headquarters Battery also established guards on vital installations within the town. Battery "A" CP located at Gmund, Battery "B" CP located at Gotzing, Battery "C" CP located at Foching and Battery "D" at Marschall. All batteries set up guards on vital installations and road junctions. A roving patrol was established by each battery to cover their respective areas. Battery "D" in addition to other assignments was also guarding the airstrip at Holzkirchen, where a large number of B-17's were stored.

Assignment remained the same until 25 July 1945 at that time the area was enlarged and Battery "B" moved to the vicinity of Sauerlach. Batteries enlarged areas to absorb the additional territory assigned battalion. Battery "B" established guards on all road junctions in this area and a roving patrol throughout the entire road network in the area of Sauerlach.

Missions remained the same until 4 September 45, at that time the battalion was detached from the 27th AAA Group and placed directly under the 38th AAA Brigade. The battalion was assigned the following missions: Headquarters and Headquarters Battery was assigned to primary duty of operation of P.X. Depot 137, Nurnberg, and a secondary mission of guarding the P. X. property. Battery "A" was attached to the 135th AAA Gun Battalion (Mbl) at Camp Dachau and given the primary duty of furnishing guards for PW 29 located at Camp Dachau, and a secondary duty of transporting P.W.'s from Camp Dachau to work point and return. Battery "B" was assigned the primary duty of operating P.X. Depot 195, Munich, and an additional duty of providing guard details for the P.X. property. Battery "C" was attached to Special Troops, Third U. S. Army, and given the sole mission of operating the Third U. S. Army Provisional Car Company, Bad Tolz. Battery "D" was attached to 777th AAA AW BN (SP), (Nurnberg) for operations, with the duty of supplying three guard details, one at a gasoline dump (Mersfold), a second at the Banana warehouse at ration dump 53, Q.M. Depot, Nurnberg, and the third at a flour mill in Nurnberg. At 1700 all batteries arrived at their new positions and took over assignments.

On 30 September 1945 the batteries were still carrying out the above missions.

2. Relations with Allied Forces.

Not applicable.

3. Relations with a former German Force.

Road blocks, when established, were instructed to apprehend all persons who did not possess proper identification and pass forms and report any suspicious persons and/or activity observed, and to enforce existing military government.

Road Blocks were instructed to apprehend all German Army personnel seeking to pass if they did not possess the proper discharge.

Battery "D" was assigned the primary mission of establishing and maintaining the guard of the 14th Armored Division PW cage at Wasserurg on 18 May 1945. Battery "D" was relieved of this mission on the 24th of May 1945.

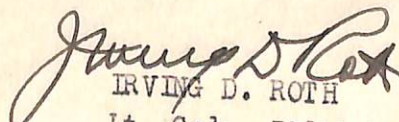

On 6 September 45, Battery "A" was attached to 155th AAA Gun Battalion (Mbl), Camp Dachau for operations for the primary mission of furnishing guards to PW 29, located at Camp Dachau. Battery "A" was still performing this mission on 30 September 1945.

4. Relations with the civilian population.

On 11 May 45 road blocks were maintained in the vicinity of Landshut to check all persons passing through and enforce regulations from higher Headquarters pertaining to the civilian population.

The above assignment was carried out until the 17th of June 45 at which time the Battalion was assigned an area for occupation in and around Holzkirchen, Germany. Road blocks and roving patrols were established to enforce existing regulation and to insure against riots and disorders. Constant contact was maintained with Burgermeister of the Geminde to enforce the existing regulations from higher headquarters and Military Government office.

Each Battery maintained an emergency riot squad consisting of one M-16 complete with crew and three additional riflemen available on call and two M-16's and one M-15 on thirty minute call, in the event of riot and disorders.
